Youthville Foster Parent Information Meeting

(Salina, Kan., July 29, 2010) – Over 1,400 Kansas children suffer from abuse, neglect and abandonment, and Youthville needs help Giving Children Back Their Childhood.

Youthville is in need of foster homes, especially loving families able to care for teens, sibling groups and special needs youth. For anyone interested in becoming a foster parent to help make a difference in the life of a child, an informational meeting is being held Wednesday, August 4 from 6-7pm in the Forum Room at University United Methodist Church, 1509 S. Sante Fe, in Salina.

Parents will learn about:

- What it takes to become a foster parent
- Licensing regulations
- Benefits
- And much more!

To RSVP for the informational meeting, call 800.593.1950, ext. 8118, or email info@youthville.org.

Youthville is one of the largest nonprofit child welfare agencies in Kansas, specializing in foster care, adoption, psychiatric residential treatment and counseling and therapy. The agency's 600 employees are passionate about its mission of Giving Children Back Their Childhood to the 1,400 Kansas children who suffer from abuse, neglect, abandonment and trauma.
